PobleteTamargo Welcomes Back Jeremy Ibrahim After Federal Service with the US Navy

ALEXANDRIA, VA – PobleteTamargo is pleased to welcome back Jeremy Ibrahim as Counsel to the firm after his service with the Department of the Navy (“DoN”). Mr. Ibrahim was sworn in as the DoN Chief of Staff to the 77th Secretary of the Navy on July 20, 2020. As Chief of Staff, Ibrahim was a member of the non-career Senior Executive Service with 3 Star equivalent rank.

“Jeremy is a talented litigator, colleague, and friend. We are looking forward to engaging in the legal and policy trenches again and helping firm clients accomplish their legal and policy goals,” said Mauricio Tamargo, co-founder of PobleteTamargo.

Mr. Ibrahim was previously confirmed by the US Senate to serve as the Commissioner with the United States Foreign Claims Settlement Commission at the Department of Justice. Since 1992, he has operated his own general law practice, which includes federal trial litigation, international law, business, tort, and federal criminal law. Prior to private practice, Mr. Ibrahim served as an Assistant District Attorney in Philadelphia.

Ibrahim will continue his robust litigation practice and will also advise clients on navigating U.S. policy matters. You can learn more about Jeremy’s work by reviewing his bio on the firm’s website.

Founded 10 years ago PobleteTamargo is a boutique federal regulatory and litigation practice specializing in federal regulatory law, national security law, international law, and related policy matters. You can learn more about the firm at www.pobletetamargo.com.
